

The project is helping to

W

00

00

00

W

00

• The center will also provide the infrastructure, equipment,

and training needed to help the country's health care system improve its ability to respond to future outbreaks.

the pre-structures on the establishment of internal SAISA implementation teams, development of agency

communications and awareness raising for Ministers, pilots agencies and the public.

cent and Malian public servants for