

political parties should refrain from similar politicization of the hearings that prevents more meaningful discussion.

would provide additional time for the Blue Nile Parliamentary Commission to finish its analysis of the data collected and to write a comprehensive report, and, if the CPA is deemed not to have met the aspirations of the constituents, for the SLA to prepare for and engage in negotiations with the Government of Sudan.

Principles for International Election Observation and Code of Conduct that was adopted at the United Nations in 2005 and has been endorsed by 35 election observation groups. The Center assesses the process against the CPA, the Popular Consultation Act of 2010 and other